

COMMUNITY NOTES THIRD QUARTER 2017

JULY- SEPTEMBER 2017

TITLE: CIAM

REPORTER: Minuto Azteca

DURATION : 1:00 min

Airing: ROS throughout the day 7am – 12mid as of 7/31/2017 (evergreen)

The Mexican Consulate is reinforcing its assistance to residents of Southern California by providing an open and free call-in phone line CIAM - Information and Help Center to Mexicans (Centro de Informacion y Asistencia a Mexicanos) for people to call 24/7 for help regarding immigration issues, questions or in the case of an immigration-related emergency. There are simple steps to follow if people feel the need to contact an immigration officer, which can be found in this segment as well as through the phone line. The Consulate is also inviting locals to informational seminars and workshops that discuss people's rights and immigration topics.

TITLE: Citizenship Clinics

REPORTER: Minuto Azteca

DURATION : 1:00 min

Airing: ROS throughout the day 7am – 12mid as of 7/31/2017 – 8/19/2017

The Mexican Consulate has joined forces with community organizations to provide citizenship clinics to the general public, for the end goal to make Mexican voices heard and partake in important decisions that affect people of Mexican descent living in this country. Some clinics have been held at Loyola Marymount University, Los Angeles, where people have received information and forms needed to reach US Citizenship. The next clinic in partnership with CARECEN (The Central American Resource Center) will be held August 19th, at 8 a.m., at the Mexican Consulate in Los Angeles.

TITLE: Mexican Consulate Health Fair

REPORTER: Minuto Azteca

DURATION : 1:00 min

Airing: ROS throughout the day 7am – 12mid as of 7/31/2017 – 8/7/2017

The Mexican Consulate provides a health fair as a monthly service to the community. Free exams are available for many types of illnesses, such as eye exams, cholesterol and diabetes testing. Information regarding low-cost health care plans such as Covered California, Medical and food stamps will also be available. Furthermore, free backpacks will be given away to get children ready for back to school. The next health fair will be August 7th, at the Mexican Consulate in Los Angeles.

TITLE: Mexican Consulate Somos Mexicanos

REPORTER: Minuto Azteca

DURATION : 1:00 min /

Airing: ROS throughout the day 7am – 12mid as of 8/31 – 9/08

Many people are thinking of returning to Mexico due to the political situation. The Mexican government through the Mexican Consulate in the US created a program for Mexicans that live in the US to aid them through the process of returning to Mexico or to those that have been deported.

TITLE: LA Galaxy & Herbalife Foundation

REPORTER: Minuto Azteca

DURATION : 1:00 min

Airing: ROS throughout the day 7am – 12mid 8/29 – 8-30

Many students have a difficult time going to college due to their economic status. LA Galaxy and Herbalife foundation created a program to donate computers and has donated over $300,000 annually for school supplies and educational support to students in Southern California.

TITLE: Pilars for Progress

REPORTER: Minuto Azteca

DURATION : 1:00 min

Airing: ROS throughout the day 7am – 12mid as of 9/11 - 9/21

The Congressional National Institute has created a program called Pillars for Progress to help students learn about the economic and educational challenges of today's competitive market. It also teaches students about the benefits local Community Colleges provide. To learn more about the program, visit www.CHLI.org.

TITLE: DACA

REPORTER: Minuto Azteca

DURATION : 1:00 min

Airing: ROS throughout the day 7am – 12mid as of 9/21 – 9/29

Explanation of dates required to renew DACA applications for people that are currently part of the program. The note explains that there are no longer opportunities to apply for the program, however renewals are available before October 5th, 2017. For more information visit the CHIRLA and CARECEN's websites.

TITLE: Double Citizenship

REPORTER: Minuto Azteca

DURATION : 1:00 min

Airing: ROS throughout the day 7am – 12mid as of 8/22 – 9/06

The Mexican Consulate is offering support to those that wish to return to Mexico. One of the most important steps is to have all the documents in order, one of which is the person's Mexican birth certificate. Specifically those of persons who have Mexican parents and have been born in the US, in order to give them the dual citizenship. There is a high demand for these documents at the Mexican consulate, therefore they have extended their hours from 7AM to 8PM Monday through Friday, and the "Consulate on Wheels" service can help Wednesday through Sunday.

TITLE: Kids back to School

REPORTER: Minuto Azteca

DURATION : 1:00 min

Airing: ROS throughout the day 7am – 12mid as of 8/14 – 8/21

Parents are getting ready for their kids going back to school this August 15th. But with this comes reiterating the safety procedures that children need to know, such as knowing how to cross the street, and not walking in areas that are lonesome. Also, making sure children report bullying to teachers, and if the issues don't get resolved, ensuring they report it to their parents. The report encourages parents to be involved in their children's education so they can be more successful.

TITLE: Hurricane

REPORTER: Minuto Azteca

DURATION : 1:00 min

Airing: ROS throughout the day 7am – 12mid as of 9/21 – 9/29

The report encourages the public to be aware of the hardship the state of Texas is suffering due to a major natural disaster, the devastating hurricane Harvey. Three locations are provided to make donations: The American Red Cross, The Salvation Army USA and FEMA. To verify the locations that the public is giving donations to, they can do the research through the Better Business Bureau at www.GIVE.org.

TITLE: Earthquake Mexico

REPORTER: Minuto Azteca

DURATION : 1:00 min

Airing: All day 12pm – 11pm 9/19

The Mexican earthquake has devastated many cities in Mexico, but miracles happened thanks to those that were quick to respond to the aid of the injured and affected. Hope was found with each person that reached out and moved their hand in hope of help. There have been non-stop rescue missions, and Azteca will keep the public informed. Mexico stands!

TITLE: DACA 3

REPORTER: Minuto Azteca

DURATION : 1:00 min

Airing: ROS throughout the day 7am – 12mid as of 10/04 – 10/06

Explanation of dates required to renew DACA applications for people that are currently part of the program. The note explains that there are no longer opportunities to apply for the program. For more information visit the CHIRLA and CARECEN's websites.